CHECK VACANT PROPERTY CARDS—Vacationing Villagers greatly appreciate the service offered by the Palm Springs police department of checking their property while they are away. Chief August Kettmann and Clerk Marlene Knower are pictured checking over the property reports for the 465 residences which were vacant at some time during the summer months. Officers check the property every two to five days, and a report is sent to the owner every month.

County Board Authorizes Desert Court

Desert branch of the county superior court will sit at Indio from October 1, this year, until May 31, next year, it was announced Monday when supervisors acted favorably on petitions from both Desert and County Bar associations.

Spokesmen for the Bar associations Monday told supervisors of the heavy case load in the desert area, declaring that the number of legal cases now crowding the docket could not be disposed of in two years under the present set up.

Attorney Rex Hardy, trustee for Desert Bar association, headed the delegation at the county seat.

SUPERVISORS authorized employment of a temporary superior court judge to sit at Indio for the October-May period.

Desert Bar association of which Judge E. E. Theriault of Palm Springs is president, has long campaigned for establishment of a permanent department of county superior court at Indio. This Spring Judge Theriault presented a long statement of facts on the legal situation in the desert area to the grand jury, pointing out the economic loss and long delay in litigation for desert residents who have to travel many miles to the county seat.

EARLY THIS YEAR Judge Clarence Kincaid of Los Angeles, county superior court, held special sessions in Indio for several weeks, introducing a time-saving pre-trial court and reducing the number of cases on the calendar by a large percentage.

While fishing a stream with a party, he decided that the going might be better across the fence . . . He climbed over . . . But on the side he was now on was a bull and a dozen or so heifers . . . POLICE SUMMER HOME SERVICE BRINGS PRAISE

Winter Residents Write Unsolicited Letters of Thanks for Watch Kept on Their Properties

"A splendid service indeed!"

Vacationing Villagers are unanimous in expressing this opinion of the service offered by the Palm Springs police department of checking their property and notifying them of the condition.

This service to residents has been conducted for the past five years, and is becoming more popular with vacationers every year, Police Chief August Kettmann reported.

MORE THAN 465 residences were checked this summer, from periods of two weeks to the entire summer season. It isn't only a summer operation, although that is when the largest number of houses are vacant.

EMPTY HOMES are checked every two to five days, with officers checking the outside only for breakage of windows.

NINTH ANNUAL DENTAL SEMINAR SLATED HERE

Seminar for Study and Practice of Dental Medicine Scheduled for October 26 to 31

Annual Seminar for the Study and Practice of Dental Medicine will again be held at the Desert Inn in Palm Springs from October 26 to 31, according to Marlon G. Lewis, executive secretary.

The Seminar, now in its ninth year, is designed to permit clinicians and investigators to meet for four days to discuss the latest developments in the non-mechanical fields of practice in an atmosphere permitting rest and relaxation, Miss Lewis said.

MORNING SESSIONS will be held at the Plaza theater, with evening meetings scheduled to be held on the front patio of the Desert Inn. Afternoons will be open for relaxation and recreation, although special discussions may be arranged.

Lecturers at the Seminar will be: Herman Beck, M.D., D.D.S., professor of Dental Medicine and chairman of the Division of Dental Medicine, University of California, staff member of the George Williams Hooper Foundation for Medical Research, and research associate in the Institute of Experimental Biology, University of California.

TODAY LAST DAY FOR REGISTRATION

Today is your LAST chance. Registration for the November 4 general election ends this evening.

If you are not on the books by tonight you will have no voice in the coming presidential election.

Registration books are open at the city clerk's office at the city hall, at John Connors office in the Center and at Palm Springs Department and Hardware store.

In addition, Mrs. Edna Brott, who has been registering voters at the post office Tuesday and yesterday, will be there again today from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 4 to 5:30 p.m. today.

Not even a squeal was heard at Hoot and Holler Saturday night at the American Legion hall.

The reason—someone stole "Salami," the pig which was to star in a "greased pig contest" later that evening.

Don Burns, Legion program director, had arranged the contest and secured the pig for "Daisy Mae" night at the regular Saturday night Hoot and Holler.

Checking around 7:10 p.m., Burns found that "Salami" was missing. He reported the theft to the police station, and officers checked the building and around town and still no

Plan Animal Shelter for Village

Seek Action in Fall on Stray Pet Problem

Use Small Animal Hospital Now is Advice of Rink

City of Palm Springs plans building an animal shelter this fall, according to City Manager Russell Rink.

No facilities are available at the present time for taking care of deserted or lost pets, and it is recognized that a city the size of Palm Springs needs a shelter, Rink explained.

At the present time, local residents who no longer want their pets or who cannot take care of them, are asked to take them to the city pound where they will be destroyed free of charge, or new owners found. The city pound is at Dr. O. B. McRory's Small Animal hospital, 395 Sunny Dunes road.

RINK ASKED owners of pets not to abandon them to roam the streets in search of food.

The announcement of the plans for an animal shelter was made in answer to a letter from Evelyn C. Knudsen, Desert Hot Springs, who told of that town having an Animal Shelter which is being flooded with animals from Palm Springs.

Four or five active members of the group have undertaken to care for these animals in their own back yards and homes until homes can be found for the animals, but this is very difficult to do as the town is small, Miss Knudsen said.

INSTEAD OF OBTAINING the help of other individuals, she continued, "we have had the unfortunate experience of having people dump their animals in our laps when they were ready to leave on vacations, or had a litter of kittens or pups of which they wished to dispose."

"This is not the purpose of the Animal Shelter in its present circumstances, for we do not actually have an animal shelter," it was explained.

"We have no facilities to take care of all these animals from homes here or from Palm Springs. We can only take care of the few lost and strays that would suffer horribly if some kind person did not give them food and water. We ask the people of this community and Palm Springs to please refrain from dumping the animals on our door steps."

TELLING HOW 11 cats were recently brought there within a few days, Miss Knudsen appealed to the "animal lovers in Palm Springs to do for their community what we are attempting to do in a small way for Desert Hot Springs."

"We are glad to cooperate with you on this," she said. "But we cannot handle the full burden of it. Our community is not rich. It is not large. A very few of us are taking it upon ourselves to do what we can. That is all we can do at present."

Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann in a new Safety Column appearing in The Sun asks cooperation of all in protection of our school children. First column is on Page Eight today.

THE SUSPECT still sticks to his story that his pretty niece was killed accidentally by the blow of a tire jack when he stopped to fix a flat on a lonely road in Cherry Valley.

District Attorney William O. Mackey and his assistant, Elwood Rich, presented the state's case to the grand jury Monday. Five witnesses, including the parents of the slain girl, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Knodel of Redlands, and a brother of Erwin Knodel, Paul Knodel, appeared at the jury quiz.

Jimmy, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Curtis, 875 Sunny Dunes, is starting the second grade, and Greg, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hall, 974 San Lucas road, is starting kindergarten. Formal Charges Returned by Jury in Slaying Case

Riverside county grand jury, after a short two-hour session Monday, returned an indictment charging John Chauncey Lawrence with the murder of his niece, Kathryn Knodel, whose body was found on Ramon road east of Palm Springs August 20.

The indictment was returned in Judge O. K. Morton's superior court at shortly after noon.

Lawrence was immediately taken before Judge John Gahbert for arraignment on the indictment.

BUT HE ONLY HAD time to tell the court that his true name was John Chauncey Lawrence when the case was continued until September 16 at 9 a.m. This was originally the date for the preliminary hearing which was cancelled with return of the grand jury indictment.

William Shaw, Riverside attorney, who will defend Lawrence, asked for the continuance to have time to examine the grand jury proceedings.

LAWRENCE APPEARED in court under guard of four deputy sheriffs.

While he was in court, M. L. Vivien, sheriff's department investigator, and Don Archer, investigator for the district attorney's office, prepared to leave for Memphis, Tenn., where they will question the suspect's common law wife, Lyla Harris Lawrence, in search of new evidence in the case.

Indians Vote on Detour for Widening Job

City Authorizes Project Subject to Tribe's O.K.

Decision of the Agua Caliente Tribal Council on the Indian Avenue detour is awaited by the city today, with completion of the Indian avenue project depending on whether approval was given at the Tribal Council meeting late Wednesday.

City Council at its meeting yesterday authorized completion of the project, subject to approval of the detour by the Tribal Council.

THE DETOUR is needed around the Agua Caliente Indian baths while widening and paving of the half-block immediately in front of the bathhouse is completed.

Sixty to 90 days will be required for the project, as a concrete bridge must be constructed under the road surface to protect it from the seepage of the famous Agua Caliente mineral springs.

THE TRIBAL COUNCIL had a full schedule of business, according to Louise McGlamory, chairman. Other members of the Council are Flora Patencio, Violet Olinger, A. J. Andreas and Joseph Patencio.

Included among the things considered were:

A new set of by-laws for the Tribe, bringing them up to date. Improvement work in Andreas and Palm Canyon for the convenience of visitors, including new toilets, picnic tables, directional signs and clearing of trails.

A RIGHT-OF-WAY for a freeway to be constructed over Tribal land between Garnet and Thousand Palms.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

AMERICAN TOURISTS IN CANADA this summer were somewhat surprised—and rather chagrined—to find that their dollar was worth only about 96 cents in Canadian funds. Many of them remembered when the United States dollar fetched $1.10—or even $1.20 in Canada. It didn't make many shopkeepers or resort hotel owners up there very happy because they were afraid their American visitors might resent paying 4 or 5 percent extra. Harrison Hot Springs, a delightful hotel and spa on the shore of Harrison Lake east of Vancouver, accepts United States currency at par; so does the J. and W. Wilson apparel store of Victoria and Vancouver. They have to absorb the difference. The large hotels of Vancouver and Victoria do not, however.

A pleasant surprise was to find that our dollars were good at par in purchasing airplane tickets and—more important—that we saved the U. S. tax.

Just why the United States dollar is down and the Canadian dollar up is that Canada has, for the past six years, balanced its budget and actually shown a surplus while our country has been plunging deeper into debt. Canada is right now enjoying an investment boom—much of it American capital. America's vast possession of gold does not serve to maintain the value of the dollar; that is dependent entirely upon confidence in the American government. In Switzerland, by the way, the U. S. dollar is worth about the same as in Canada.

Newspapers in this country are paying heavily for this devaluation of the American dollar in Canada because most of our newsprint comes from our neighbor to the north. With the rise in the value of the Canadian dollar, newsprint has gone from $106 to $126 a ton. Some of the publishers have protested to the American government for relief or counter measures. A different position is taken, however, by Jake Funk, Santa Monica publisher and chairman of the newsprint committee of state publishers. He says that his Santa Monica Outlook does not believe "that this is a matter where government interference or threats are warranted. Instead of criticizing the action of the Canadian government for authorizing the price increase," he says, "our friends in Washington might profitably inquire into the reason for the Canadian dollar increasing in value above ours, and apply the lesson to our own finances."

The vast numbers of Americans who visited Canada this summer who take great pride in the wealth and leadership of this nation will be doing some thinking about what has happened to the purchasing power of their dollars—and why. Maybe it's a good thing.

Dorsey Held for Trial in Check Case

Suspect Admits Charges Before Judge Therieau

Robert M. Dorsey, alias Harris Miller and several other names, was bound over to superior court after he entered a plea of guilty to two bad check charges at his arraignment before Judge Eugene Therieau Monday morning.

Dorsey was arrested here Wednesday evening by Sgt. Durman Ordway, following a tip from Herb Rauch, manager of the Royal Palms Hotel.

THE 35-YEAR-OLD suspect told a fantastic tale of passing bad checks all over the country, with the total amount exceeding $5,000, police said.

He admitted to two prison terms, 10 months in the New Mexico State Penitentiary at Santa Fe, N.M., on a bad check charge, and a one-year term for grand larceny in the Florida State Penitentiary at Laiford.

The latter term was during the time he was on parole from the New Mexico penitentiary, and he claimed the Florida prison authorities never discovered this fact, and he kept his parole board "happy" by having a friend mail letters to them.

DORSEY, or Miller as he was known here, also claimed to be a second "Big Dong Daddy," saying that he was married to two women now, and had been married once before that, and that neither of his present wives knew of the double affair.

Dorsey also admitted to Sgt. Ordway that he stole a car in New Orleans and leaving it in Houston, Texas, and had in his possession a watch belonging to Judge Frank Mackname in Las Vegas.

DORSEY HAD BEEN in the Village only three days before his arrest, but said that he had been a visitor here for the past 14 years and had worked in various places during that time.

He was employed by the Royal Palms Hotel as a painter and had cashed a check there, drawn on the Palm Springs branch of the Bank of America, which was returned to Manager Rauch by the bank. Rauch then notified police.

Dorsey had checked out of the El Patio Court 30 minutes before Sgt. Ordway started searching for him. All transportation outlets were immediately notified to be on the lookout, and Ordway continued his search around the city, locating him about an hour later at the Del Tahquitz hotel.

HE HAD CASHED another check there, and a third check was found torn up in the waste-paper basket at the El Patio Court. He had only 60 cents in his possession when taken into custody.

All of his trouble was a direct result of liquor, he said. "I'm just like everyone else, hard working and industrious, until I start drinking. Everytime I have been in trouble, it all started from liquor."

Among cities in which he admitted cashing bad checks were Washington, D.C.; Pensacola and Miami, Florida; New York City; Cleveland; San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Teletype reports were sent to each of the cities he admitted cashing checks, but no replies have been received. A reply came from Las Vegas police, asking the local department to forward the watch there.

Accident Delays Varner's Return

County Supervisor Homer Varner, who had expected to leave the hospital Thursday, will have to remain there a few days more as result of a mishap Wednesday.

Varner's right leg was amputated three weeks ago and he suffered his setback Wednesday when he fell while trying out a pair of crutches.

"But I'll be at the supervisors' meeting September 15," he said.

THAT'S THE MAN—Herb Rauch, right, manager of Royal Palm hotel, tells Sgt. Durman Ordway that Robert M. Dorsey (center) is the man who gave him a worthless check. Dorsey afterwards told police a story of nation-wide bad checks and was bound over to superior court for trial.

Herb Rauch New Hotel Manager at Royal Palms

Announcement was made last week that Herb Rauch, on the staff of the Royal Palms for more than six years, has been named manager of the hotel. He will also have charge of the Ball Room, operated by the hotel.

Rauch said he had many plans for improvements at the Royal Palms which he hopes to put into effect this season.

After attending Cornell University, Rauch was chief room clerk at the Terrace Plaza in Cincinnati and managed other hotels and clubs.

GIRLS INVADE NEW FIELD—SHOE SHINES

It's no longer a boy's world. The shoe shine profession, once monopolized by boys, has been invaded by the opposite sex.

They reported making $7 cents in the first half hour.

Start Plans for Christmas Seal Drive in County

Richard B. Hampson of Riverside has been appointed county chairman for the 1952 Christmas Seal Sale, according to Howard P. Younglove, president of the Riverside County Health and Tuberculosis Association.

The Christmas Seal Sale will be conducted in the county from November 17 to December 25.

"It is a duty as well as an honor to accept this opportunity to help further the work of tuberculosis prevention and control in the county," Hampson said.

He pointed out that in 1951 alone, there were 38 deaths in the county from TB, and 80 new cases of tuberculosis reported among county residents.

The Riverside County Health and Tuberculosis Association conducts a year-round program to control tuberculosis. Principal activities are x-ray mobile unit operation, school health services including tuberculosis testing, health education and patient rehabilitation services.

Boys Find Needle, Syringe, in Road

No one has claimed ownership of a glass case containing a hypodermic syringe and two needles found by two boys near St. Theresa school, Police Chief August Kettmann reported.

It is believed that the case belonged to a diabetic, although it is possible that a dope addict may have been using the articles.

Chief Kettmann commended the boys for their alertness in recognizing the value of the discovery, and turning it over to authorities immediately.

Forest Streams Again Stocked with Fingerlings

Almost 9,000 trout fingerlings from the Mojave fish hatchery of the state fish and game commission have been packed from Idyllwild to Willow and Tahquitz creeks, the two main streams of the 40,000 acre wilderness in the San Jacinto mountain wild area it was reported at Idyllwild this week.

It marked completion of the first stocking of hatchery-raised trout in almost ten years.

THE STOCKING was slated for last year but because of low water, was deferred. But the two streams maintained a good flow all summer this year.

Because of dry conditions for the past seven years, few trout have survived except in the deeper pools. The plant just completed, plus high water, is expected to start a new fish population in the wilderness.

County C. of C. Group Fights McLain Plan

Say Proposition Would Halt All Promotion Work

Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce executive committee promised a showdown fight against the George McLain-backed ballot proposition at a meeting in Idyllwild Thursday night, and started plans for a fuller study of the November propositions at its September 16 meeting in Corona. The group charged that McLain's proposition was an attempt to kill all chamber work. T. C. Likins of Elsinore, president of the County Board of Trade, indirectly accused the welfare promoter of working against the interest of the elderly people whose contributions support his organization.

"McLAIN IS TRYING to take the financial support away from the very groups that will build up the economy of the state and thus benefit the elderly people of the state," Likins said. He expressed hope that the economic report on Riverside county, to be revealed September 18 at a meeting in Riverside, will be highly beneficial. "We're on our way toward getting industry," Likins said, adding that he believes many industries should be easily obtained for the county because "industry is being pushed away from the coast."

COUNTY SUPERVISOR Sherman Lewis told the group of a plan for a state sponsored summer boys camp in the San Jacinto Mountains which would provide for such groups as 4-H members who now go to Camp Redford in the San Bernardino Mountains.

He reported that he has been working for a year to interest the State Division of Beaches and Parks in the $150,000 project, and that he has been promised legislative help by State Senator Nelson Dilworth.

Prior to the meeting, members and their wives were entertained by executive board member Louis Abernathy at a steak dinner.

Capt. Graham Now Serving on Korean Front

Capt. P. K. Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thad S. Graham, 3375 Buena Vista drive, is serving with a photo intelligence unit of the 17th Bomber Group in Korea.

He left the States about a month ago, making the trip by plane in 36 hours. During World War II, he entered service in 1942, and was stationed throughout the Pacific.

In a letter received by his parents Monday, he told them not "to complain about the heat in Palm Springs." The temperatures are high in Korea and there is also a high humidity, he said.

"The South Koreans are to be pitied," Capt. Graham wrote, "as the majority of the people are poverty stricken."

ground . . . Ellis didn't believe he meant it until the bull charged . . . Ellis headed for the barb-wire fence . . . The bull followed . . . Ellis had difficulty in getting through the fence.

NOW COMES Chapter II . . . Enter the wood-pussy, alias polecat, also skunk . . . (There is also a scientific name but some lowlife swiped my dictionary) . . . To continue, Mr. Ellis suddenly just waved to the rest of the party, watching him flee the bull . . . "I'll just walk back to the hotel," he yelled . . . (Ten miles, too) . . . Arriving about 10 p.m., his first question from a safe distance was: "What time does the laundry open in the morning?" . . . He explained later . . . While untangling himself from the fence that ill-mannered skunk . . . Lurking in the grass . . . Let him have it in the rear . . . "The skunk probably thought it was anybody's fight," said Ellis charitably.

FOUR DATES to recall this month . . . Labor Day (already history) . . . Admission Day, Tuesday, September 9 . . . First day of Fall and the end of Summer, September 22 at 6:24 p.m. . . And Return to Normalcy, September 28 at 2 a.m. . . That's when daylight time gives way to Standard time . . . PST instead of PDT . . . Cutting back to Tuesday . . . That day California was 102 years old . . . It became a state September 9, 1850, less than 100 years after the first white settlers came . . . That was 1769 . . . INDICATIONS that it won't be long now before the season is in full swing: Parking places downtown are getting harder to find . . . No more plenty of room to head in . . . The art of backing in in one operation without scraping the curb is being revived . . . There has been some complaint heard about those clouds which piled up each day last week and then disappeared without doing anything . . . To those who yearned for rain I would say: "And do you want those unmentionable crickets?"

FROM THE TYPEWRITER of Archibald J. Archibald, 2nd Asst. Dep. P.L., P.S. Dist. N.I.A., Res. Div. (See Note) comes the following:

The vote will show him that Ike will go marching through Georgia.

(NOTE: The letter following Archibald's name do not constitute a Washington alphabet soup agency . . . They mean: "Second assistant Post Laureate, Palm Springs District, North Indian avenue department, Reservation division).

IF YOU HAD SEEN IT on a postcard you'd cry FAKIE!

Prowlers Sought After 2 Attempts to Enter Homes

Two attempted illegal entries into residences here were reported to police Monday. Edan Neil, 224 Circle drive, reported at 8 p.m. that a man of medium build attempted to open the door at their house while two daughters, 11 and 13 years of age, were home alone.

The door was locked and the man fled when the dog started barking, he reported.

Joseph LeBrum, 45 North El Segundo, told officers that someone entered the house between 2 and 2:30 p.m., and turned on a light in the kitchen. He fled when LeBrum's sister, Lois, awakened and started to investigate.

The doors of the house were left open because the cooler wasn't working, LeBrum said.

Coach Ballagh
Has Only Three
Lettermen Back

Twenty-one boys have reported for the high school football team, with only three of them veterans of action on the 1951 squad which finished in fourth place with a 4 win and 3 loss record.

The three lettermen are Rudy Martinez, fullback; Bob Haveman, center, and Charles Driskell, tackle.

With this small number of veterans returning, Coach Clare Ballagh forecasts a poor season unless some of the newcomers and Junior Varsity boys are ready to take over the vacated positions.

AFTER THE FIRST few practice sessions, he said that the Indians should have a good line, but a doubtful backfield.

He picked Coachella as the team favored to win the Riverside County League title as the Arabs have most of last year's team back.

OTHER BOYS out for the team are Alvin Harrison, David Pivoid, Pete Siva, Bill Manger, Tod Alles, Don Moser, Tony Summers and Sam Hall.

About the same number of boys are trying out for the Jayvee team, Ballagh said.

Practice sessions were held each morning and night until school started Wednesday, and now only night sessions are scheduled until the first game with Valencia high school at Placentia on September 26.

ANOTHER PRACTICE tilt has been scheduled with Brea-Olinda high school on October 3, at the local field.

The league schedule follows:
Oct. 10, Coachella here.
Oct. 17, Banning there.
Oct. 24, Hemet here.
Oct. 31, Perris there.
Nov. 7, Beaumont here.
Nov. 14, San Jacinto here.
Nov. 21, Elsinore there.

County to Buy
New Crane Truck

Riverside county supervisors have under study bids for a truck-mounted crane for use on county roads.

Because the bids were termed incomplete, awarding of the contract will be delayed a week.

INDIO ARENA FEATURE
MATCH HALTED BY REF

Continuous fouling and brutality by Wrestlers Lord Leslie Carlton and Jess Ortega prompted the referee to stop the match after 4:20 minutes of the third fall in the feature bout at the Indio fairgrounds Friday night.

Both wrestlers were bleeding from facial and scalp injuries, and even after the referee had proclaimed the match "no decision," refused to quit until they had gone at each other furiously for several more minutes.

ORTEGA HAD won the first fall when Lord Carlton was unable to break a headlock after 8:19 minutes of action, and Carlton took the second round in 1:28.

Then the tempers flared to set the stage for a glared rematch. They will meet again Friday night in a winner-take-all match under "Texas rules" (use of fists permitted). Their purses last week were held up by the State Athletic Commission until after this rematch.

IN THE SEMI-FINAL Friday, King Kong Kashey will meet Filipino Rey Urbano, and the preliminary will match Al Kashey against Red Shoes Dugan.

In the semi-final last Friday night, King Kong won two consecutive falls from Ray Piret. He took the first in 20:55, and the second in 13:55 after Kong had used his "atomic drop" and Piret was unable to rise from the canvas.

HOLDING TO THE RULES of wrestling, King Kong would not permit the attending physician to administer aid to his injured opponent until Piret had conceded the fall.

The first match was a preview of the main event. Karl Johnson and Al Kashey (subbing for Woody Strode) ignored both starting and stopping bells, and the referee had trouble keeping the match under control.

KASHEY WAS AWARDED the first fall in 12:03 when Johnson was disqualified for fouling him. Johnson took the second fall in 5:52 with a body press, and then won the match by winning the final fall in 1:28.

Kashey's brother, King Kong Kashey, leaped into the ring to his rescue when Johnson took control in the third fall. King Kong was ejected from the ring.

Home Ownership in Nation Shows Sharp Increase

CV Savings and Loan Keeps Pace With Great Gain; Aids Many Desert Residents Build Homes

Home ownership in the United States has increased 35 per cent over the past ten years, and over 55 per cent of the nation's families now own their own homes, according to Bill Smith, president of the Coachella Valley Savings & Loan association.

The announcement was made by Smith in connection with the local institution's observation of National Home Week, September 14-21, which is dedicated to the American tradition of home ownership.

"NO OTHER NATION in the world approaches this percentage or is as well housed," Smith said. "National Home Week is particularly significant to savings associations because of the major role they have played as the largest group of institutional home lenders in the country in making this home ownership figure possible."

"Savings associations annually provide a third of America's home financing, principally on the small or medium priced homes of wage and salary earners and are the originators of the monthly pay-like-rent, direct reduction loan which, through its adoption by the FHA and Veterans' Administration, has now become almost standard in this country."

COACHELLA VALLEY Savings & Loan association has kept pace with the savings association business throughout the nation," Smith continued.

"Over 899 residents of the Palm Springs area have been assisted to home ownership during the past year through our home-financing plan. The Palm Springs association made its 254th home loan this week, bringing its total volume to $1,763,697."

Fires Take High Toll in Forests

Fire this summer in the San Bernardino National Forest have cost $105,000 in tax money and millions of board feet of valuable timber, according to U. S. Forest Supervisor Norman J. Farrell.

Tax money went for men, supplies and equipment in fighting the 49 fires which covered 5,489 acres of forest land between July 1 and August 31.

Causes of the fires follow: Negligent smokers 7, lightning 14, railroad 6, camp fires 5, burning of trash 4, incendiary 3, and miscellaneous 10.

Automobile Blaze Takes $300 Toll

Damage estimated at $300 was done to the automobile of John Olivera, Banning, when it caught fire Friday night in North Palm Springs.

California Division of Forestry crews from North Palm Springs and Desert Hot Springs subdued the blaze. Shorted wires were blamed.

Northwest Knows Village Well as Vacation Land

Many Local Winter Residents and Visitors Spend Their Summers in Evergreen Country
By O. B. JAYNES

In the East or middle West most people, when informed that you are from Palm Springs, think it's either in Florida or on the California coast. Not so from the people of the Pacific Northwest. To them the name spells the magic of this desert playground of California where they either vacation or have a home during the winter season.

Perhaps it's because of the striking contrasts between the inviting ocean and lakes and green mountains of the Northwest and the sunbathed desert and rugged mountains of this famed winter resort. But no matter what the reason may be, the people of the Northwest have fallen in love with Palm Springs and the great Northwest seems to be a favorite summer vacation land for many Villagers.

LITTLE WONDER. In these two regions we find delightful summer and vacation lands, and we must confess—areas that are not very desirable for year-around living.

Take Vancouver, B.C., for example. The setting is superb. The bayshore to the south for several miles is beautiful, forested Stanley Park—one of the most beautiful city parks I have ever seen. On the north shore is the most desirable place in the world to live the year around. The hillsides that form spectacular Sappiano golf course. Joining the two together is stately Lion's Gate bridge which resembles the Golden Gate. Under it steam the Canadian Pacific's pleasure boats to Victoria, Seattle and Alaska—and freighters to the Far East.

ON THIS West Vancouver shore, Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks—who also have a winter home here in Palm Springs—have carved out the rocky cliff to create one of the most beautiful seaside homes I have ever seen. A little down the shoreline is the attractive home of another winter resident of the Village, Mary Hurrell. The view across the bay from these homes is something these desert eyes will not soon forget.

At the Brooks home I met Dr. and Mrs. Taylor Henry, world travelers who are also frequent Palm Springs visitors. I asked the doctor what he considered was the most desirable place in the world to live the year around. Monte Carlo, he said. But he still likes Vancouver in the summer—and believes the setting on the bay there is hard to beat anywhere in the world.

OTHER VANCOUVER residents whom we visited with at the Brooks home and like Palm Springs for a winter vacation were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Soloway and Attorney Jay Gould. In fact it was hard to find anyone up that way who had not spent a winter vacation in Palm Springs.

There are many beautiful golf courses in the Northwest, and the people up there are very golf-minded. In the summer months when tournaments are going on somewhere most of the time. The Capilano course at Vancouver is situated high above and overlooking the city and bay. The vistas from every green are glorious. Seattle's Broadmoor and the Seattle Golf Club—where the National Amateur was being staged while we were there—attract golfers from all over the U.S. and Canada including several from Palm Springs.

I WAS TOLD that our Thunderbird course here was patterned after Broadmoor with its hostesses all around. These are the courses where Ben Shearer and M. O. Anderson polish up their games for winter play at Tamarisk and Thunderbird. Johnny Dawson was up there with Mrs. Dawson whom we visited with at the Olympic hotel. He played in the National Amateur but didn't get into the finals. Also playing the Seattle course were Solle Manasse, Milt and Harold Hicks. We ran into Milt and Maggie Hicks and Harold in the Seattle-Tacoma airport where they had just arrived from Palm Springs. The Manasses were on a tour of the Northwest.

When Seattle and Palm Springs resident Don Kennedy returns to the Village this fall he will be introducing his friends here to his bride, the former Dora Lee Taylor. The couple were married in Seattle on July 25th.

PORTLANDITES have reason to be proud of their great city too. While time did not give us the opportunity to tarry in the Oregon metropolis, we understand why Mr. and Mrs. Dean Vincent, the George Braleys and the host of other Portland residents who visit or have winter homes in this desert area think so much of their homeland. We want to see more of it next summer.

We seem to have just a taste of the great Northwest country. But it was good and we would like a lot more. Next summer, perhaps.

Right now I am determined to stick by my resolution not to travel by highway. Much as I like it, I give up.

To the trucks, loggers, busses and house trailers. They have taken the highways. There seems to be much more smooth going on the rails—or up above!

Anza Co. Asks Permit to Serve Mountain Area

Hearing on a request by the Anza Electrical Co-operative, Inc., for an electrical franchise in sparsely settled territory from the Palms-to-Pines Highway to the Riverside-San Diego county line at the south end of the San Jacinto Mountains has been set for October 6 by county board of supervisors.

Territory to be served includes 300 or more square miles of mountainous area, including Anza, Canby, Terwilliger Valley, Chama Mountain, Bautista Canyon, Tripp Flat, Wilson Valley and Pinyon Flats.

The co-operative has also applied to the California Public Utilities Commission for a certificate to permit it to distribute electricity, arranged for a $750,000 loan from the Rural Electrification Administration, and arranged with the California Electric Power company to supply electricity to the co-op at wholesale rates.

This will be the first time that REA has participated in financing any power installation in Riverside county, according to Deputy County Council Ray Sullivan.

Two from City at Loan Session

The three-day convention opened yesterday.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Narrow Town—Broad Outlook

The wife's cousin Ben, and Belle his bride are back from honeymooning in the Rockies. Took them to dinner last night at the Garden Tavern. Ben told about the trip:

"Went through a town in Idaho that was only 100 feet wide. No kidding! Built into a long, narrow canyon. And it shares those 100 feet with a railroad track that runs right through the hotel!"

"To get gas there we had to park right on the tracks. Suddenly Belle screams—'there's a train coming!' But the gas fellow just laughs and says we were there first. Blamed if the engineer didn't stop the train and wait, too!"

From where I sit, it's a good illustration of how people can learn to "think of the other fellow" so that the community benefits. Railroaders and townspeople, Democrats and Republicans, malted milk fanciers and those who prefer a temperate glass of beer—we all have to share the same space. Let's maintain our neighbor's "right of way."

Reminds Veterans to Check Government Life Insurance

James E. Carlsen, county service officer, last week issued a reminder to veterans in the county area who are returning to active service and to Korea servicemen coming home, to check on their National Service Life Insurance policies.

He told former servicemen who have pre-Korean NSLI policies to hold on to their government life insurance if they return to service. They may use their premium waiver privileges to defer monthly insurance payments on term-life policies while on active duty, he pointed out, and resume payments when they are discharged. Servicemen with insurance waivers are protected by free $10,000 government indemnity while on duty.

Two Radio Thefts Reported in Day

Theft of two radios from two different places was reported to Palm Springs police Sunday.

Mrs. Clem Segundo, 488 North Calle Segundo, reported that someone had broken a padlock off the door of the home of her son, Frank Segundo, and took a table model Zenith radio with a dark colored wood case.

Pete Kaska, Smoke Tree Ranch, told police that someone had forced open the door of his car and stole a table model 6-tube Packard-Bell radio with birch colored wood case. The theft occurred between 11 p.m. and midnight, Saturday, while the car was in the parking lot area at Villa Victory, 444 North Indian avenue.

Safety First Cooperation of all Village Needed

By A. G. KETTMANN (Chief of Police)

Vacation is over—for drivers as well as school children—and this is the period when we of the police department expect motorists in Palm Springs to again conduct themselves in an exemplary fashion.

Thanks to the constant support of the newspapers and radio, the community is pretty well advised of the annual transition from play to work and the change is accomplished without too many costly citations being issued—without too many knuckles being rapped.

Our primary concern is safety—both human and material—which may only be accomplished if the department has the cooperation of the parents in the community. With 1900 youngsters sharing the streets with an increasing number of motor vehicles it is obvious that there must be some sort of system to avoid conflict.

DR. ARTHUR HOFF's school department through its transportation supervisor, George Bond, has taken every precaution to protect the youngsters while in its care. Parents should instruct their children to obey the rules implicitly.

Because we have no sidewalks many will walk along the shoulders of the road, particularly on Ramon, Section 564 of the California Vehicle Code requires pedestrians to walk on the left hand side—facing traffic. At night, light-colored clothing should be worn for better visibility.

Bicycles are subject to the same traffic laws as motor vehicles. They must be ridden on the right side of the street and not on the sidewalk. In some cases, we have discovered, parents have instructed their children to ride on the sidewalk.

ON BEING INTERVIEWED they explained their children were too young to ride in the street. In that case, it is our opinion, they are too young to ride bicycles. Pedestrians have a right to the safety afforded by the sidewalk and this winter bicycles will not be permitted.

This policy is dictated by increased use of our sidewalks and because several persons, principally women and those of advanced age, have been struck and painfully hurt by careless youngsters.

At night, bicycles must carry lights and the Palm Springs Police Officers association has purchased reflectorized tape which will be attached to the frame as an added safety measure. This is part of the association's accident prevention program.

Johnson Urges Rounded Studies

Keynoting the 1952-53 school year in Riverside county at the annual opening-of-school meeting of his staff, County Superintendent of Schools Ray W. Johnson in Riverside this week endorsed classroom instruction about such controversial subjects as UNESCO, sex, labor unions and Communism.

"In fact," the county education head said, "we support teaching about all aspects of life including especially the 'three R's' and the American way of life."

While stressing that it is not the public schools' role to indoctrinate children on such ideological issues as UNESCO, he indicated that it is the school's obligation to equip students with the facts that will enable them to cope intelligently with all of today's major issues.

Gordon McMahon of Cathedral City has enrolled at the University of Redlands, it was announced last week.

Chamber Urges Early Listing of Special Events

William Dunkerley, manager of Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce last week issued an appeal to all civic groups and organizations, planning special events this season, to list them with the Chamber office at once.

This publicity will mean loss of valuable publicity through the All Year Club of Southern California, Dunkerley said.

He explained that the local Chamber works closely with the All Year club, advising them of special events here for publicity. Information on events must be in the club's hands three months before release so that proper publicity can be prepared, the Chamber manager added.

This publicity is distributed to city and travel editors, national magazines, radio networks, news services and travel bureaus.

Therefore, organizations should list dates for events as early as possible to insure proper publicity, Dunkerley said.

Annual Rosh Hashanah Services at Temple Isaiah

Rosh Hashanah will be observed Saturday and Sunday, September 20 and 21 at Temple Isaiah of Jewish Community Center, Rabbi Arthur B. Lebowitz announced this week. In accordance with the traditional method of Jewish observance, this festival begins with sunset of the previous day. It will mark the second time the services have been held in the new Temple.

The liturgical portions will be chanted by Cantor Leon C. Bennett of Van Nuys. Mrs. Christine Tomlinson is the organist.

"The high spiritual ideals of Israel are expressed in the prayers composed by Jewish rabbis for this Holy Day," said Rabbi Lebowitz. "The idea of judgment constitutes the backbone of the entire service. Emphasis is placed upon the idea that the New Year marks a season of self-examination, repentance and reconciliation of man with man and man with God, making for a spiritual recreation of life."

UNDERSTANDING GOD IS SUBSTANCE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SAYS

The development of wisdom and of a spiritual understanding of God and His creation brings harmony into daily living, according to the Sunday Lesson. Sermon on "Substance" in all Christian Science churches. Paul's declaration to the Hebrews (11:1) is the Golden Text: "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

A selection from Luke's Gospel (9:38, 41-43) relates that "A man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son; for he is mine only child. And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; . . . and Jesus answering said, . . . Bring thy son hither. . . . And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father. And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy writes, "Our Master's first article of faith pronounced to his students was healing, and he proved his faith by his works." "It is well to be calm in sickness; to be hopeful is still better; but to understand that sickness is not real and that Truth can destroy its seeming reality, is best of all, for this understanding is the universal and perfect remedy." (pp. 145, 393).

Dr. Blackstone to Occupy Pulpit Sunday Morning

Dr. James H. Blackstone Jr., Community church minister, and family returned to the Village Monday and he will occupy the pulpit at the church next Sunday morning.

The Blackstones spent most of their vacation in Vancouver, B. C., where Dr. Blackstone preached in the Shaughnessy Heights United church several times during August.

Their oldest son, Jim, left last Sunday for Hampden-DuBose academy, Zeewood, Fla., for his senior high school year.

Sunday Dr. Blackstone will start a short sermon series of personal religion in preparation for the World Wide Communion service October 5. Topic for next Sunday will be "Christ and You."

Services will be resumed in the main Sanctuary which was enlarged and redecorated during the Summer and a new Baldwin organ installed.

Dedication of the chancel and organ will be held later in the Fall.

Bond Vote

Juvenile Hall Drive Planned

Plans were formulated for a campaign to secure a favorable vote November 4 on the $774,000 Juvenile Hall bond issue at a meeting of Riverside County Probation personnel and other interested citizens in Riverside last week.

Community leaders throughout the county will be asked to help with the campaign, financially as well as other types of aid. Parts of the present structure have been condemned by the State fire marshal, and several sections have been termed by the Probation Office as fire traps, earthquake hazards, and inadequate to house the large number of children who occupy them, the group pointed out.

M. G. Meads Return from Summer in Yellowstone

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard G. "Whitey" Mead, owners of the Wayside Inn, have returned to the Village after spending three months in Yellowstone National Park.

While there, Mead was employed by the Yellowstone Park Company, as a chauffeur of one of the four limousines the company operates for tourists.

Last Rites Said in Colorado for Walter J. Martin

Last rites were said in Glenwood Springs, Colo., last week for Walter Jarvis Martin of Arenas Lodge, West Arenas road. Mr. Martin died in the Colorado city where he and his wife, Ruth, have spent their summers for many years.

Mr. Martin was born in 1881 at Pittsfield, Mass., and was a member of an old New England family of Scottish descent.

HE CAME to the west coast as a young man and for 15 years was associated with and an official of the Mortgage Guarantee company of Los Angeles until he retired due to ill health.

He served with the First Division in France during World War I with the hospital supply unit of the Red Cross while on leave from the Mortgage firm.

MR. AND MRS. MARTIN were married in 1922 and came to Palm Springs in 1930 when they purchased the former Henry Pearson property, now known as Arenas lodge, at 239 West Arenas road.

Mr. Martin is survived by his wife, Ruth, prominent in Woman's club circles here; her son, Col. Frederick M. Sperry, military attaché at Stockholm; a niece, Mrs. William B. Goss of Oak Park, Ill., and a nephew, William D. Martin of Anniston, Alabama.

Springs, Calif. When the summer temperature there became oppressive, he loaded Mrs. Mead into a trailer and headed for the Yellowstone. The trailer and Mrs. Mead right now are parked by one of the most inviting of the trout streams. His lucid explanations of the thermal basins and the various strata of rock were made more understandable when he referred to his son, who soon will receive his master's degree in geology.

"This fall Mr. and Mrs. Mead will return to Palm Springs and open up the Wayside Inn, ten units, out on South Palm Canyon drive and he will resume his duties as treasurer of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment House Owners' association."

THEY VISITED their son, Richard Mead in Caspar, Wyoming, where he is employed by the Shell Oil Company. He is a recent graduate of the University of Southern California, and was elected into Phi Beta Kappa.

One of Mead's customers was H. K. Dickey, publisher and editor of the "Tavern Talk," national weekly magazine. Dickey, in his weekly column in the magazine, wrote the following about "Whitey":

"IT WAS" a real pleasure to meet "Whitey" Mead. He drove the car which John Nichols was good enough to put at our disposal so we could see the Yellowstone. He drove the car, explained the wonders of nature and gave us an insight into the good life.

"Whitey" explained that for the summer months he was a fugitive from the heat of Palm
